HOCH DER KAISER, MYSELF UND GOTT

By A. McGREGOR ROSE (A. M. R. GORDON)

This remarkable poem, which made a sensation in two hemispheres, and the recital of which by an American naval officer at a dinner in New York nearly cost him his captaincy and embroiled the United States with Germany, is here presented with appropriate and striking original illustrations by Miss JESSIE A. WALKER. It is a work of art.

To the Reader,

Care The Artist,

New York City.

Dear Sir:

As an artist have you realized that Photography is becoming more and more entitled to rank among the fine arts? Have you also noticed that Photographers are now using their utmost endeavors, combined in many instances with artistic feeling, toward obtaining something more than mere literal transcriptions of nature or topographical views? We have no doubt you have; but in order to keep better posted in all matters photographic, we suggest that you subscribe to the Photographic Times. A sample copy will be sent you upon receipt of 20 cents. The photogravure frontispiece is alone worth the money. There are besides 40 to 50 illustrations in each issue.

Very truly yours,

The Photographic Times Publishing Association.
